Allsorts of Perks.

Keystage POWERED BY quinn.

The fair play promise

Because a thank you should never look like a backhander.

1. Rewards go to the school. Never to the person who books, and never to anyone's home.
2. Same rules for everyone. Every school gets this exact ladder. No side deals.
3. Nothing hidden. Every reward and its value is on your star statement for finance and auditors to see.
4. Rather have money off? Swap any reward for the same value as invoice credit.
5. Book us because we're good. Stop using us whenever you like. Stars you've earned stay yours.
6. Opt out with one email. No questions, no awkward phone call.

Rewards are a loyalty rebate given to the school as an organisation. Stars count per academic year from 1 September. Values are approximate. We may change the rewards with a term's notice, and stars already earned are always honoured.
